A STITCH IN TIME!

Paducah, Kentucky – “Quilt City”
May 15-16, 2019 (Wednesday & Thursday)

Look at this picture...it's a quilt!

This is just a sample of the fantastic quilts that you will see at the National Quilt Museum. The museum celebrates the work of today's quilters and advances the art of quilting by bringing it to those of us that had previously not experienced this art form. The collection exceeds 600 works of art and, in addition, they feature traveling exhibits made up of breathtaking works of quilt and fiber art from all over the world. I don't quilt but these amazing quilts make me want to try! Rosemary

Day 1 – Wednesday, May 15th (Fairfield Glade, Tennessee to Paducah, Kentucky)

This morning, board your Knoxville Tours motorcoach and head for Paducah, "Quilt City USA." Utilizing every minute of our time in Paducah, your first stop will be McDonalds Restaurant (Dutch treat) for some sustenance before beginning a Paducah Adventure. The "Quilt Man" will introduce you to this historic river town in an unusual fashion with three important stops. Visit the 1908 Hotel Metropolitan and visit with Ms. Maggie, who will provide you with a look at the lives of famous African-American guests during the time of segregation. The hotel hosted famous sports figures and entertainers, including Louis Armstrong, Billie Holiday and many others. You will love Ms. Maggie! Then visit the Paducah wall-to-wall Floodwall Murals, which give an account of the city's history and show how the rivers shaped Paducah's culture. That's not all ... check out The Moonshine Company to discover Kentucky's moonshine legacy with a tour of working whiskey stills. When you sample the local flavors, make sure that you sample the "Quilter's Special!" After this unique city tour, check into your hotel, the Holiday Inn Express, before departing for a tour of the River Discovery Center. Celebrating Paducah's maritime legacy and lore, enjoy the interactive, water-filled exhibits, including a working model of a lock and dam. Captain a towboat or other watercraft through various scenarios in the pilothouse simulator. Don't hit the bridge! After your tour of the center, go upstairs into the Founder's Room for a delicious buffet dinner with Dixieland Music by Captain Freddy and the Rivercats. Return to your hotel after learning what Paducah is all about and wondering why you haven't visited here before... (Included today: Lodging at the Holiday Inn Express and Dinner at the River Discovery Center)

Day 2 – Thursday, May 16th (Paducah, Kentucky to Fairfield Glade, Tennessee)

This is “Quilting Day” and following an included breakfast, you are off and running to the National Quilt Museum for a contemporary quilt experience through exhibits and a “Signature Experience” in a workshop behind the scenes of the museum. At the museum, discover the greatest fiber art in the world – quilts, and not the kind most grandmothers used to make. During your tour of the galleries, you will see permanent exhibits and also short-term exhibits from quilters around the world. Don’t miss the miniature quilts – all 24-inches or smaller in size. Then, take your inspiration and talents to the classroom and create original quilt blocks on a customized VIP TOUR. Departing the museum, lunch is included at Rafferty’s. After lunch, it’s time to shop at Hancock’s of Paducah! They provide the supplies and inspiration to take your craft to the next level. It is a fabric shop reportedly with no equal! With many bags in hand, depart for home from your 2-day trip to the special and historic waterfront town of Paducah, Kentucky. (Included today: Hotel Breakfast & Lunch at Rafferty’s)
